

PROMOTING CHILD WELFARE:
Training Professionals to Support Healthy Marriages, Relationships and Families
Post Field Instruction Self-Evaluation

Student: _____ Semester: _____

Agency: _____ Supervisor: _____

This evaluation instrument is an addendum to the Department of Marriage and Family Therapy/School of Social Work field evaluation process. It addresses the specialized learning requirements for students who are participating in the Promoting Child Welfare training grant. The Promoting Child Welfare training grant prepares students to address marriage and family issues effectively with the goal of improving outcomes for children receiving services provided in the public and voluntary child welfare service systems. Prior to this semester, you completed this self-evaluation. Now that you have taken the Healthy Marriages, Relationships and Families: Intervention, Research and Policy class, we are seeking to determine what you got from that class and what you were able to use in practice. Please return this form to Sharon Alestalo by _____. It can be returned electronically to swalesta@syr.edu or to the 4th floor, main office mailboxes.

What specific activities did you engage in with clients related to marital or couple issues? (e.g., marriage preparation, family life education, developing a group or mentoring program for couples)
